I Think My Dad Is Dracula

Read this poem and answer the questions on the back

I think my dad is Dracula.
I know that sounds insane,
but listen for a moment and allow me to explain.

We don't live in a castle,
and we never sleep in caves.
But, still, there's something weird
about the way my dad behaves.

I never see him go out in the daytime when it's light.
He sleeps all day till evening,
then he leaves the house at night.

He comes home in the morning saying, "Man, I'm really dead!"
He kisses us goodnight, and then by sunrise he's in bed.

My mom heard my suspicion
and she said, "You're not too swift.
Your father's not a vampire.
He just works the graveyard shift."

— Kenn Nesbitt

I Think My Dad Is Dracula

Why does the child think their dad is Dracula?

When does dad sleep? When does he go out?

What does the mom say about the dad's behavior?

Why does the cat never want to go out of the house?

Do you think dad is works hard? Why do you think so?

Draw a picture of the dad from the poem.
