

Name: _____

Date: _____

Good Morning, Dear Students

SPELLING WORKSHEET

Underline the correct spelling of the words in parentheses

"Good morning, (deer, dear, dere) students," the principal said.

"Please put (down, doun, downe) your pencils and go back to bed.

Today we will spend the day playing outside,
then take the (hole, howl, whole) school on a carnival ride.

"We'll (learn, lern, lurn) to eat candy while watching TV, then listen to records and swing from a tree.

We'll also be learning to (drah, draw, drow) on the walls, to (scream, screem, screme) in the classrooms and run in the halls.

"So bring in your skateboard, your (scooter, scuter, skooter), your bike.

It's (thyme, tyme, time) to be different and do what you like.

The teachers are going to give you a rest.

You don't have to (studdy, study, studee). There won't be a test.

"And if you'd (prefer, prefur, preefer) for a bit of a change, feel free to go wild and act really strange.

Go put on a (clone, cloun, clown) suit and dye your hair green, and copy your face on the Xerox (machine, masheen, machene).

"Tomorrow it's back to the (reggular, regular, regulur) grind.

Today, just go crazy. We really don't (mind, mined, mynde).

So tear up your homework. We'll give you an A.

Oh wait. I'm just (kiding, cidding, kidding). It's April Fools' Day."

— Kenn Nesbitt