

Name: _____

Date: _____

We Ate All the Cheetos

Read this poem and fill in the blanks with the rhymes from the list on the right

We ate all the Cheetos
and all the _____
and all of the chocolates and cheese.
We still have some greens and a can of _____
and some pickles and parsnips and _____.

We swallowed the sweets, all the puddings and _____,
and we finished the ice cream and jam.
What's left is a _____
and a jarful of kraut and what looks like a turnip or _____.

We drank all the shakes and we ate all the _____
and the pies and the fries and the custard.
And yet there's a _____
and a few sprigs of thyme and a half-empty bottle of _____.

It seems we were hasty
in eating the tastiest
snacks we had purchased before.
Now all that's on hand
is the food we can't _____.
We might have to go to the _____.

— Kenn Nesbitt

Word List

cakes
Doritos
lime
mustard
peas
sardines
stand
store
treats
trout
yam

