Lost and Found

Read this poem and fill in the blanks
with the words from the list on the right

I have to go to Lost and Found.
I need to have a look _____.
I lost my pencil and my pen.
I lost my binder once _____.

I lost my scarf, my coat, my hat,
my baseball glove and ball and _____.
I lost my lunch. I lost a shoe,
my wallet, and my money, _____.

Today I lost a tooth in class.
I lost my marbles in the _____.
I lost a game of tic-tac-toe.
I lost my head a while _____.

I may have lost my sense of smell and lost my place in line as _____.
I lost my patience, lost my cool.
I lost these things—and more—at _____.

I hope I find them in the mound of missing stuff at Lost and _____.
But most of all, I hope to find my brain because I've lost my _____.
