I Hypnotized the Teacher

Read this poem and fill in the blanks
with the words from the list on the right

I hypnotized the teacher
in our _____ yesterday.
I think it worked! He's started doing _____ I say.

I said he was a chicken.
He _____ to crow and cluck.
And then he started quacking
when I said he was a _____.

It made my _____ laugh
to see the teacher act so funny.
He hopped and nibbled carrots
when I said he was a _____.

I said he was a fierce,
ferocious, giant _____.
It worked, but now he won't do
what I _____ him anymore.

Our class is now directed by
this stomping, roaring creature.
I recommend that you don't ever _____ your _____.
