

Name: _____

Date: _____

I Dreamed it Was December

SPELLING WORKSHEET

Underline the correct spelling of the words in parentheses

I dreamed it was (December, Desember, Decembur)
and the trees were draped in (sno, snow, snwo), that Christmas would be (coming, comming, comeing);
just a few more (weaks, weeks, weekes) to go.

I dreamed we'd have a (holiday, holliday, hollidae),
a festive (wintur, wintter, winter) break.
We'd give each other (presants, presents, preasents)
and we'd feast on (pie, pye, pigh) and cake.

I dreamed we'd (decorait, decorete, decorate) the house to celebrate the Yule.
And, (best, besst, behst) of all, we'd get a little time away from (scool, school, scol).

I dreamed I'd make a (snowman, snowmann, snowmen)
and go sliding on my (sleid, sled, slad).
But then I heard my (muther, mother, mothur) saying,
"Wake up (sleppyhead, sleepyhed, sleepyhead)."

I dreamed it was December
and would soon be (Noo, Nu, New) Year's Day.
It stinks to have that (dreem, dream, dreame)
and then find out it's only (May, Maey, Mai).

— Kenn Nesbitt

