

Name: _____

Date: _____

I'm Great at Almost Catching Things

SPELLING WORKSHEET

Underline the correct spelling of the words in parentheses

I'm (grate, great, grait) at almost catching things.

I nearly catch them (all, awl, aul).

Today I almost caught a stick and almost caught a (bawl, baul, ball).

I almost caught an apple,
and an orange, and a (pear, pair, payer).

I almost caught a cupcake
and a giant teddy (bair, bare, bear).

I almost caught a (duzzin, dozen, duhzen) eggs.

I almost caught a (boll, bole, bowl).

I almost caught a (glass, glas, glast) of milk
and then a casserole.

I almost caught a pot of (soup, supe, soop)

and several (canz, canns, cans) of paint.

Then mom walked in and saw the mess.

I thought that she might (feynt, faint, fante).

I (mass, mess, miss) things by so little.

I'm surprised she doesn't (see, sea, cee)

I'm practically an expert.

She should be more proud of me.

— Kenn Nesbitt

