Larry the Leprechaun

SPELLING WORKSHEET

Underline the correct spelling of the words in parentheses

Larry the Leprechaun didn't like green.

He cried, "It's the worst (coler, color, color) I've ever seen!

It (mite, might, mytt) be okay for a bush or a tree, but green is a color you won't (find, fynd, finde) on me.

"I'm not (fond, fawned, fahned) of olive, or forest, or lime.

I don't like chartreuse, (neon, neawn, neon), clover, or thyme.

I shudder at shamrock and juniper too.

But I'm not allowed to (ware, wear, where) purple or blue.

"They tell me I have to wear green every (deh, dae, day),
and shouldn't wear orange, magenta, or (grai, gray, greh).

Well, sorry, I have to be (true, trew, troo) to myself.

A leprechaun's more than some silly green elf.

"And that's why, regardless of what people say,

I no longer celebrate Saint Patrick's Day.

From now on, I'm dressing in pink, white, and red to celebrate Saint Valentine's Day instead."
